Class History

1950-51

In September, 1950, twenty-two bright and shiny Freshmen faces, were seen in the halls of M. R. H. S. Class meetings were held and officers elected were:

Mary Hammond-President
Don Lind-Vice-President
June Bigelow-Secretary & Treasurer
Norma Arnold-Reporter

Class Colors-Red and White
Motto-"Forward Ever Backward Never
Flower-White Carnation
Sponsor-Mrs. Franklin

During the year we lost Floyd Thomas and Jerome Farmer and gained Shirley Berneau and Robert Krizan.

1951-52

During the next summer the class lost Robert Krizan, Shirley Berneau and Peggy Strunk, and gained Bill Herter from Pryor, Oklahoma. Officers elected were:

Bill Herter-President
Don Lind-Vice-President
Mary Hammond-Secretary
June Bigelow-Treasurer
Jesse Elrod and
Beverly McCoy-Reporters

Mr. Culbertson-Sponsor

Before Christmas Jessie Jackson got married and Mary Hammond moved to Jefferson City, Missouri.

1952-53

The year of 1952-53 proved to be quite busy for the 19 Juniors. They had charge of the concessions, presented a play, "Saved By The Belle", and presented the senior class with a lovely prom. During the year they lost Bill Herter and regained Robert Krizan, but lost him again before school was out. They also gained Dolores Raines. Class officers were:

Bert Flynn-President
Don Lind-Vice-President
Norma Arnold-Secretary
June Bigelow-Treasurer
Pat Gillaspie-Reporter

Mr. Green & Mrs. Franklin- Sponsors

1953-54

In the summer of 1953, two more members of the class, Emma Colgin and Pat Gillaspie, got married to cut the number to 17. Class officers were:

Don Lind-President
Bert Flynn-Vice-President
Clyde Anderson-Treasurer
Beverly McCoy-Secretary
Mr. Hancock-Sponsor

The annual staff was elected and work began. This proved to be one of the few problems that faced the Senior Class of 1954. Diplomas were awarded May 21, 1954.

All the members of the Senior Class with the exception of Dolores Raines have spent the entire four years together at Moran Rural High School.

Class Prophecy

Clyde Anderson

He's known as Cosmopolitan Clyde
On any old freight he'll sneak a ride.
He'll hop the rods or ride a blind
When told that hard work is close behind.

Norma Arnold

After the wedding they found a chance
To buy a fine two acre ranch.
Wayne says Norma has made him happy
And many children now call him "Pappy."

June Bigelow

None but the blind can e'er forget
This very lovely majorette.
You can see her now on the midnight show
Of Harold's Club in Scipio.

Della Boeken

Who ever guessed this timid doll
Would some day be a gangster's moll?
Cuss like a pit boss, tote a gun
Well you guessed right--It's all in fun.

Ruby Crocker

Throughout the years Ruby has been,
Generally speaking,
Yes, we said, "Generally speaking."

Dianna Cuppy

We know you haven't the slightest ide-e-e
Just what has happened to little Didie-e-e.
Stop in at Varner's and hear her say,
"Do you want cream in your coffee today?"

Jesse Elrod

"Heartless Jesse" is his name
He's head of Kansas Fish and Game.
Just let your faithful gun smell smoky
And Jess will toss you in the "pokey."

Bert Flynn

A great ambition was really hisen
To be the warden of Sing Sing Prison.
To this fine place our Bert did go
But only as number so-and-so

Naomi Gillaspie

She's HELLO girl in Bayard town
And the numbers you get will mow you down.
All the patrons will say they know
She plays "Eenie, Meenie, Miny, Moe."

Don Lind

Coach Green so loved our Donald that
Together on the bench they sat.
The passing years now find his name
Upon the pin-ball hall of fame.

MORAN RURAL HIGH SCHOOL

I. T. DIRKS, PRINCIPAL

MORAN, KANSAS

School Year 1953-54

Moran, Kansas, March 1, 1954

The school year of 1953-54 has seen the continued effect of student activity and curriculum expansion on the student body. The addition of new courses, and the systematic organization of the Industrial Arts and Home Economics Departments, has been a dominant factor in the increased interest and high morale of the student body. This has given the students a chance to plan their future high school education on a sound basis.

Influence of the development of a sound and progressive music department has also had a very wholesome effect on the student body, and real school spirit. The biggest news in this field was the development of the high school band, under the direction of John Hancock. It has become the pride and joy of every high school student, as well as school patron.

The high school this year also took on a new look in the field of inter-scholastic contests. No longer is this confined in Moran High School to athletics, it has been expanded to scholarship, debate, oratory, readings, music, and one-act plays. All of these activities have now become a dominant factor in our high school life.

We have had a reasonably successful school year. Meanwhile, against this backdrop of curriculum and activity expansion, the Moran Rural High School students will continue the never-ending battle to push forward the frontiers of knowledge.

I. T. Dirks
Principal

Frances Marlow

A chat with old buddies now reveals
Frances prayed for a husband and home on wheels.
Her dream of twelve darlings was doomed to failure
'Cause the stork stripped his gears a chasin' the trailer

Beverly McCoy

The passing of years cannot stop
This queen of the old Bunny Hop
Now a dancer of fame
Bubble Bev is her name.
Ha! We fooled you! Bev's bubbles don't pop.

Carol Myers

In school we never did surmise
That Carol's fame would be her size.
She weighs 400 and as you know
She's "Queen of Blubber" with Ringling's show.

Larry Perkins

We all remember how our Larry
Read every book in the library.
It's little wonder now that he
Is Dr. Perkins, Ph. D.

Dolores Raines

Remember how in H. S. times
This child was always penning rhymes?
And now today 'twas no surprise
To hear she won the Nobel Prize.

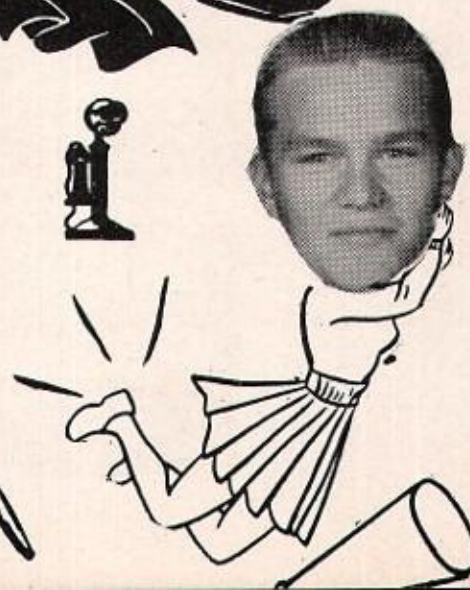

Mary Ellen Stewart

We can't forget Mary Ellen
She was short, blond, and sweet-smellin'.
We also remember her man some
Rev. Price, so tall dark and handsome.

Bobby Wagner

(4 star general)
Who dreamed this member of our class
Would someday rate among the BRASS?
Our school is best known as the joint
That fitted the General for West Point.
